26/63 District Councillor or County Councillor reports. To receive any reports from the District or County Councillors.

Ward Councillor Jones-Williams Report. Cllr Jones-Williams reported on available funding opportunities, including neighbourhood planning grants and the Malvern Hills Growth Fund to support local businesses. A consultation is underway on the Homelessness and Rough Sleeping Strategy 2026–2031. Updates were provided on recycling improvements, planning team recognition, housing land supply monitoring, and community engagement initiatives, including awards and local tourism successes.

District Councillor Fordingtons Report. Cllr Fordington reported ongoing casework across the division, including support with highways, school transport, care services, and local infrastructure. Concerns were raised regarding the 8.98% council tax increase and continued cost-of-living pressures, with signposting to available support. Updates were provided on opportunities to develop local health services, apprenticeship initiatives, scrutiny vacancies within the council, and community engagement, including the forthcoming “Built for Worcestershire” event. Reports from both the ward and district Councillors were noted.

26/64 Chairman’s Report. To receive a report from the chairman of the council.

The Chair reported on activities undertaken since the previous meeting, including liaison with the Clerk, District and County Councillor, and parishioners, as well as progressing agreed actions. Engagement has taken place with the NDP consultant, working group, and AECOM regarding the draft Design Guide, and an Expression of Interest has been submitted for the MHDC Defibrillator scheme. Preparations are underway for the Annual Parish Meeting on 6th May, providing an opportunity to review achievements and consider future priorities. Noted.
